

TARIFF TO BE MAINTAINED IN PRESENT PLACE

Administration Leaders Believe Bill Is Not In Danger

WON'T BE OUSTED

Democratic Senators Say They Will Force Vote On Postponement

Washington, June 20.—By a vote of 51 to 22, the senate this afternoon rejected a motion by Senator Walsh, Democrat, of Massachusetts, to take up the soldiers bonus bill immediately displacing the tariff.

The record vote was obtained on a motion by Senator Watson, Republican of Indiana, to lay Walsh's motion on the table.

Forty-three Republicans and eight Democrats voted for Watson's motion. Twenty Democrats and two Republicans voted against it.

Washington, June 20.—Administration leaders professed complete confidence today in their ability to hold enough Republican senators in line to prevent the adoption of a motion to displace the tariff for the soldiers' bonus in the senate.

Such a motion was expected to bob up during the week but even the staunchest bonus advocates admitted it was hardly likely to command a majority vote in view of President Harding's expressed opposition to the tariff being sidetracked.

The tariff would be kept before the senate, it was predicted, although there was no foretelling when it would be passed and the bonus given the legislative right of way, in accordance with the resolution adopted by twenty seven of the sixty Republican senators in secret conference.

While the resolution was not binding upon the Republican majority and opposition to it was divided between Republican senators opposed to or favoring the bonus, the administration spokesmen claimed to have the situation so well in hand as to prevent the president's desire to have consideration of the tariff continue uninterrupted from being over ridden.

But a number of Democratic senators declare they proposed to force a record vote on the further postponement of the bonus. If a motion to take up the bonus without additional delay was beaten, a similar motion would be offered week after week in order to keep the bonus issue before the senate, it was stated. On the Democratic side Senators Pat Harrison, of Mississippi; Ashurst of Arizona; Walsh of Massachusetts and Robinson of Arkansas, were ready to press such a motion as likely, in their opinion, to prove embarrassing to the administration forces.

It was announced that the Republicans supporting the president would be given ample opportunity to reject repeatedly a motion to take up the bonus before the tariff is finally disposed of.

"If the Republican side," said Senator Lenroot, Republican of Wisconsin, "shall adhere to the position that the bonus bill shall pass at this session, which I am willing to be guided by the action of the majority as to the time it shall be taken up. Unless we can have that assurance, however, I should vote to take the bill up now."

INNOCENCE IS PROTESTED TO LAST

Columbus, June 20.—"I am innocent of this crime, God bless you all." This is the dying statement made by John Henry Gackenbach, 21, Franklin, Pa., as he sat strapped in the death chair at the penitentiary here shortly after midnight this morning, awaiting the turning on of the electric current which was to speed his soul into eternity.

Gackenbach was praying when the electricity was turned on. He was officially pronounced dead at 1:08 a. m. Only one application of the current was necessary. He was found guilty of murdering John C. Boone, 72 year old night watchman, while trying to rob Boone and the Islay dairy company, at Marion, with which concern Boone was employed, on February 8 last.

New Minority Report Submitted to Congress by Five Members of House Military Affairs Committee Condemns Muscle Shoals Project.

Washington, June 20.—Condemning the offer of Henry Ford for leasing the Muscle Shoals, Ala., water project as a "scheme of frenzied finance," tending to defraud the government, a new minority report was submitted to congress today by five Iliodor, the "mysterious mad monk of Russia," who styled himself "the Patriarch of Russia" and who claimed to have presented the famous monk Rasputin to the late Czar, is held in jail in Riga, Latvia, and is being questioned regarding his former connection with the Soviets. He claimed he was on his way to the United States to preach against Bolshevism.

KELLOGG IS LEADING IN PRIMARY RACE

Minneapolis, June 20.—Senator Frank B. Kellogg is leading his chief opponent, former Congressman Ernest Lundeen by more than 2 to 1 in the race for the Republican senatorial nomination, according to latest returns from yesterday's primary election.

Ninety-five precincts out of 3,438 give Kellogg 5,799 and Lundeen 2,737.

In the Democratic senatorial contest Mrs. Peter Olson and T. J. Meighan are running a close race on the face of early returns. In eighty precincts reporting Mrs. Olson had 675 votes to 524 for Meighan.

Governor J. A. O. Preus apparently has won the Republican nomination for governor.

COMMISSION MAY BE SENT INTO RUSSIA

The Hague, June 20.—The international conference on reconstruction of Russia may decide to send a commission of inquiry into Russia if the soviet will agree, it was learned this afternoon. Hitherto the representatives of soviet Russia have declared that they would not permit the entrance of such a commission.

The French are advocating study of Russian conditions at first, hand by a committee actually upon Russian soil. In particular Premier Poincare desires to know the effect of Nicolai Lenine's illness.

TO MERGE MEDICAL SCHOOL AND COLLEGE IT IS DECIDED

Columbus, June 20.—The regular medical school and homeopathic college at Ohio State University are to be merged July 1, according to the decision of the University's board of trustees.

Action is expected to be taken relative to the proposed erection of a $300,000 university hospital, funds for which were provided at the last session of the state legislature. The homeopathic college is located on the university campus while the regular medical college clinics are conducted principally at the St. Francis hospital.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS MEET IN CLEVELAND TUESDAY

Cleveland, June 20.—More than 3,000 delegates and visitors are registered today for the opening session of the forty second annual convention of the Ohio Funeral Directors and Embalmers Association. Exhibits of all kinds of interest to undertakers are on display at the public hall.

Today's session was largely formal, the morning session being given over to addresses of welcome and responses by the officials of the organization while in the afternoon new members were received and President C. B. Wilmer made his annual address.

members of the house military affairs committee.

The report, written by Rep. Kearns, Republican of Ohio, was one of the most scathing denunciations of a national project ever submitted to either branch of congress. It branded the Ford offer as a "subsidy" and "fraud" as a "hollow promise" and a "bribe of sympathy from the farm."

Kearns and his fellow members urged congress to reject the proposal "in the name of future generations." It particularly denounced Ford's alleged "insidious propaganda" which, it termed "false, unfair and unreliable."

A majority report previously submitted by the committee urged acceptance of Ford's offer with the Gorgas steam plant eliminated, while another minority report urged its acceptance "in full."

In the Kearns report, which was also signed by Reps. Frothingham, Republican of Massachusetts; Crowther, Republican of New York and Morin and Crago, Republicans of Pennsylvania, particular attention was called to the "frenzied finance" in Ford's proposal to pay off the cost of the project. The report declared the government was asked to shell $35,487,900 worth of property for $5,000,000 in cash rent a $67,000,000 project for 100 years for a "mere $4,614,000" and lose $15,000 a year on an upkeep provision insisted upon by Ford.

The total cost to the government, the report contends, would be more than $200,000,000 if Ford's offer were accepted.

Rumors that Ford would employ 1,000,000 men were branded as a "fable" and "fairy tale" in which it was said Ford would be comparable to "Aladdin and his lamp" if the promise were true.

REPUBLICANS ARE DEFEATED IN IRISH GENERAL ELECTION

Constitutionalists Make a Clean Sweep All Over Country.

Dublin, June 20.—The Irish constitutionalists made a clean sweep in the free state general election, defeating the Republicans (anti-constitutionalists) in all parts of the country, according to further tabulation of the vote here today. The result so far as the count has gone shows:

Constitutionalists—40 seats.
Republicans—22 seats.
Independents—9 seats.
Laborites—6 seats.

The constitutionalists support the Anglo-Irish peace treaty and favor the ratification of the Irish constitution by the Dail Eireann. The Republicans repudiate both.

Eamonn DeValera, chief leader of the Republicans has not yet announced his intentions. He is awaiting a decision of the Republican executive council and Roderick O'Connor, leader of the irregular faction of the Irish Republican army. It is possible that they may decide to oppose the constitution by force of arms instead of allowing the Dail to decide upon it.

It was claimed by officials of the Irish provisional government (constitutionalists) that the adherents of Eamonn DeValera will not have thirty seats in the next dail eireann.

It is reported that Richard Mulcahy, minister of defense in the Irish provisional government, has sent an ultimatum to "Rory" O'Connor warning him and his military faction against violence or against any attempt to upset the election through force.

RELATIONS WITH AMERICA CERTAIN

Moscow, June 20.—Prediction that economic relations between Russia and the United States "is a certainty" was made here today by M. Sokolnikoff, people's commissar for finance, who nationalized the Russian banks and who will be a member of the Russian delegation at The Hague conference.

"Russia is the America of Europe," said M. Sokolnikoff. "It is a country of the greatest riches and has now been freed by revolution. Economic relations between Russia and the United States are certain, since Russia offers American industry the greatest field for expansion."

President Will Celebrate Fourth Of July In Marion

Welcome Being Planned for Harding On Arrival in Home Town in Which All Ohio Expects To Participate.

Washington, June 20.—The president and Mrs. Harding will celebrate the Fourth of July on the now famous "front porch" at Marion, Ohio, according to plans being completed at the White House today.

It will be the first home coming of the Hardings since they left Marion for Washington to take their residence in the White House.

A celebration is planned for their welcome in Marion, in which all Ohio expects to participate.

The trip to Marion will be made by automobile, consuming two days. The return trip also will be made by motor. A stop over each day will be made, at some point in West Virginia, under present plans.

The presidential party will include a number of Ohio friends of the president and Mrs. Harding, in all probability Attorney General Daugherty of Columbus; Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Charles E. Sawyer, of Marion, and possibly Comptroller of the Currency Crissinger, also a Marionite. The guest list has not been announced as yet, but it is known that it will be a comparatively small one. The Hardings probably will leave Washington early on the morning of July 2, arriving in Marion late in the day of July 3. They will spend the fourth and possibly the fifth and sixth in Marion. Later the Hardings are expected to visit Columbus and other Ohio cities. The return trip probably will be started on the seventh of July, reaching Washington on the ninth.

MAINE PRIMARIES INDICATE RETURN OF "OLD GUARD" MEN

Friends of Harding Likely Will Be Renominated in That State

Washington, June 20.—The political worries that have beset Republican leaders in the national capital since the "old guard" went down to defeat in Indiana and Iowa, were swept away today as early returns from Maine and Minnesota indicated the renomination of Senators Frederick Hale and Frank B. Kellogg, personal friends of President Harding.

Both Hale and Kellogg were allied solidly with the Harding administration and defeat of either of them in Monday's primaries would have been disappointing to the "old guard" as the defeat of Senator Harry S. New of Indiana or the collapse of the Republican "organization" in Iowa when Smith W. Brookhagen was chosen as the party's candidate.

Leaders of the Republican party, as additional returns came in today from Maine and Minnesota, pointed to the success of Hale and Kellogg as straight out victories for the administration and predicted that future primaries would record similar success, rather than the nomination of candidates representing the so-called "progressive" element in the party.

SLAYER SENTENCED FOR LIFE IN PRISON

Jackson, Mich., June 20.—George Straub was sentenced to Marquette prison for life today for murdering Miss Alice Mallett, local welfare worker. Straub, who was spirited here early today from Lansing, surrounded by a cordon of state troops to assure his safety, pleaded guilty when arraigned before Judge Williams.

Special details of state police and local officials guarded the confessed prisoner as he was led into the courtroom. Hundreds of people jammed the courtroom.

"Words cannot express my opinion of the monstrosity of the crime," said Judge Williams in passing sentence. Miss Mallett was killed with an axe, her body mutilated and left in a yard in Jackson nearly two weeks ago.

RUTH IS SUSPENDED.

Chicago, June 20.—Babe Ruth, famous home run slugger of the New York Yankees, was today suspended for three days by Ban Johnson, president of the American league because of his "run in" with Umpire Dineen at Cleveland yesterday over a decision at second base.

STRIKE THREATENS TO TEAR A. F. O. L. AS BOOM FOR LEWIS IS STARTED

Miners' Leader Admittedly Could Pull Strong Race; Belief Expressed That He Would Fall Short of Success—Combine Goes Ahead.

Convention Hall, Cincinnati, June 20.—Expected but long delayed verbal fireworks broke in the American Federation of Labor convention today and threw the convention hall in an uproar during which cries of "he's a liar" reverberated through the assemblage.

Direct charge was made against John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America that he is responsible for the continued incarceration in jail of Alexander Howat and August Dorchy, president and vice president of the Kansas district of the United Mine Workers.

The attack on Lewis was launched by Joe Lynam of the Peoria trades and labor assembly, sponsor for a resolution calling on the American Federation of Labor to "congratulate" Howat and Dorchy for their "courageous and steadfast determination to uphold the fundamental law of the nation by opposing the illegal and unconstitutional orders of the unlawful court which is now endeavoring to enforce group slavery in the state of Kansas."

DAVIS IS WILLING TO CALL SPECIAL SESSION ON BONUS

Additional Funds For Compensation May Be Needed.

Columbus, June 20.—Likelihood of state legislators being called back to Columbus early this fall for a special session to enact legislation designed to provide for additional adjusted compensation for Ohio's veterans of the recent world war, became stronger here today.

Following a session of the state sinking fund commission, composed of Attorney General Price, Secretary of State Smith and State Auditor Tracy, announcement was made that the commission had gone over figures which, in their judgement, show the necessity for early action by the state legislature in order to permit Ohio voters at the November election to pass upon the question again amending the state constitution so as to provide for an additional bond issue designed to raise not less than $5,000,000 additional for soldiers bonus.

Columbus, June 20.—Indicating his willingness to call a special session of the state legislature, if necessary, to provide additional funds for the soldiers' bonus, Governor Davis, in a letter to the state sinking fund commissioners, requested definite information as to the adequacy of the original $25,000 fund of which but $5,000,000 is said to remain.

The governor declared it would be "rank injustice" to delay paying the many ex-servicemen who have not as yet received their bonus. It is expected that the sinking fund commission, composed of Attorney General Price, Secretary of State Smith and State Auditor Tracy will give consideration to this matter at a meeting today.

STATES CHANCES TO COLLECT BIG SUM BELIEVED BETTER

Seeks Reimbursement From Counties for Institution Expenses

Columbus, June 20.—The state's chances for collecting about $500,000 from various counties as reimbursement for expenses incurred in caring for patients at state institutions brightened here today.

The State Supreme Court issued an opinion upholding the constitutionality of the state "pay patient" law which calls upon the various counties to raise taxes, to be turned over to the state treasury, to be spent in caring for wards of state institutions set up from the respective counties.

In the same decision today, the supreme court sustained the petition in mandamus filed by Attorney General Price, seeking to compel the Hamilton county taxing officials to make a tax levy and pay over to the state $68,907 for the board and maintenance of inmates in the state feeble minded institution from 1910 to 1915.

The supreme court upheld the attorney general's demurrer to the contention of Hamilton county officials that the pay patient law is unconstitutional.

State officials today claimed that, under the provisions of the pay patient law, various counties owe the state an aggregate of about $500,000, including $185,000 from Hamilton county; $163,000 from Franklin county; $27,388 from Adams county; $27,390 from Gallia county and $12,400 from Clermont county. Other counties it was stated, owe sums ranging from a few dollars to thousands of dollars.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 20.—The American Federation of Labor may yet be torn apart by internal political strife before it really gets down to work and prepares to adjourn.

Into the late hours of this morning, after a session which began late last night, friends of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, and opponent of Samuel Gompers for the presidency of the federation last year, had started a full fledged boom for him again.

Up in one of the local hotels prominent leaders of the so-called progressives in the federation "counted noses" after a day devoted almost entirely to intensive electioneering. They, however, were not altogether satisfied that Lewis could be elected leaders head when the boom meeting broke up after 3 o'clock this morning.

Statistically inclined friends of the miners' leader admitted then that while Lewis' promised strength came close to a majority for him it fell just a little short of success unless his most doubtful supporters were counted favorably.

The Lewis boom started so suddenly and worked upon so intensively was initiated without the mine leader's at least public approval. Since his arrival at the convention, Lewis has repeatedly declared his desires do not run towards the presidency of the federation.

There are a total of 31,464 votes in the convention. Close tabulation of the votes, which Lewis might count indicated he would poll 13,848 which falls 2,884 short of a majority. Giving him the benefit of the doubt with the votes of the carmen's union, the carpenters and several minor organizations, the miners' head would, statisticians claim, have 16,857 or 1,125 over the required number.

Whether Lewis becomes a willing party to the boom remains to be seen. While the convention delegates were anxious today over the political phase of the convention and the threatened "blow up" of harmony, plans went forward for the alliance between the coal miners and the railroad employees who probably will strike early in July.

Legal minds called here by the labor chiefs in conference are understood to have told them there need be no fear of conspiracy charges growing out of such a combination of forces.

Convention leaders admitted today that unless the meeting work is speeded up considerably, adjournment this week would be out of the question. So far little of the real work of the convention has been concluded.

SEE DANGER AHEAD

Nationalization of Coal Mines and Railroads Would Likely Be Price of Settlement

Washington, June 20.—The United States will soon be in the grip of the greatest labor combine in history with industry practically at a standstill if the tentative alliance of railroad unions and coal miners is carried out, labor leaders declared here today.

The miners and railroad workers on a strike at the same time and each refusing to settle until the other secures satisfactory settlement—that is the chief proposal under consideration at Cincinnati at conferences between John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers and executives of the railroad unions according to authoritative information reaching here.

If such a program is followed and victory is achieved, nationalization of both the coal mines and the railroad will probably be demanded as a price of settlement.

If the miners back the railroad workers to the extent of refusing to settle their strike until the railroad men return to work on their own terms, it was admitted the leaders of both groups face jail on charges of conspiracy. There is a strong possibility, it was stated, that the leaders will go to jail to force a "show down."

FRENCH POLICY AT HAGUE REVERSED

London, June 20.—British officials were elated today over the agreement reached by Premier Lloyd George and Premier Poincare, bringing England and France into co-operation at The Hague conference. France has reversed her policy for the time being.

Official circles are confident that a loan for Russia can now be arranged on condition the soviet recognizes the full Russian national debt, returns private property to its owners and offers safeguarding guarantees.

TREASURER'S OFFICE IS OPEN SATURDAY

The county treasurer's office will be open every Saturday afternoon from now on during the tax collection period, according to Mrs. A. E. Faulkner, treasurer.

The time for payment of June taxes has been extended from June 20 to July 20 and for the benefit of taxpayers who come to the city on Saturday afternoons, the office will be kept open at that time every Saturday until the third Saturday in July.

HUTCHINSON NOW ASSURED OF PLACE

Sandwich, England, June 20.—Jock Hutchinson, of Chicago, defending his title of British open golf champion, today assured himself of a place in the qualifying round by returning a 78 for the final 18 holes. This, with Hutchinson's 71 of yesterday, breaking the course record, gave him a medal score of 149 for the 36 holes.

Having played over the longest course in the world, Prince's, in leading his field in the first day's play, Jock Hutchinson, of Chicago, raced an easier task today for the final 18 holes of the qualifying round in the British open golf championship. The defending champion never looked better in establishing a new competitive course record of 71 at Prince's and as he started out on St. George's course today predictions were many that the American would lead home his field at the end of the qualifying test.

Jim Barnes, the American open champion, had his work cut out for him to qualify for the succeeding rounds that led up to the title. Barnes fell into a spasm of hard luck yesterday and the best he could score was an 82. Another such round today might eliminate the tall American.

Walter Hagen, the other Yankee entry, played sound golf and is one of the prevailing favorites. So is Joe Kirkwood, the Australian. This pair, with Massey and Boomer, of France, and a score or more of English and Scotch players, are expected to furnish Hutchinson plenty of competition today.

The Springfield team will be composed of Clarence Smith, who is at present the single champion of Springfield, John Botkin, Bert Carlson, and John Allen Smith and Botkin won the doubles championship of Springfield, at the club tournament last fall.

GOLD CARPETED SPRING SOUGHT BY EXPEDITION

New York, June 20.—Seeking "a gold carpeted spring" which is said to be somewhere in the Belgian Congo, 600 miles from civilization's last outpost, eight men from Katonah, N. Y., sailed on the majestic Saturday, it was learned today. Every effort had been made to keep the expedition secret. The adventurers believe that they will strike a gold deposit that will make the old Klondike look like a piker field. They are prepared to search for six months.

Washington, June 20. Senator McCormick, Republican of Illinois, has introduced a resolution in the senate demanding an investigation of the navy's "efficiency and economy of administration, particularly in regard to naval bases, navy yards and stations." On objection to its immediate consideration by Senator Dial, Democrat of South Carolina, the resolution was referred to the senate naval affairs committee.

This Week in the Garden

FIGHTING WEEDS SAVES PLANT FOOD FOR VEGETABLES

The tenth of a series of articles by Seth W. Shoemaker, Director, School of Agriculture, International Correspondence Schools.

Tillage, cultivation, or hoeing, what ever you want to call it, is the most important item in the care of the vegetable garden.

The first step in tillage is to fit the land properly before the start is made. This means that the garden should be dug up or plowed while it is light and friable, so that it will not be lumpy. This matter was discussed in a previous article.

After the land has been well fitted, subsequent tillage is practiced to maintain a surface mulch and conserve the moisture of the soil to kill the weeds, and to promote the chemical and bacterial activity in the soil. Tillage allows the air to penetrate into the soil, and this stimulates the activity in it. Many persons look upon the soil as dead, inert material. As a matter of fact the soil is very much alive, particularly in so far as its bacterial life is concerned, and without this activity much of the plant food in the soil would be lost to the plants.

Weeds Consume Food and Moisture
Weeds must be regularly disposed of because they use up much of the available plant food in the soil and because they require large quantities of moisture for their growth. By killing the weeds before they get a start, plant food and moisture are saved for the plants you want to thrive in the garden.

The cultivation or hoeing of a garden should be shallow, and may be accomplished rapidly and easily with good tools. The ordinary hoe is a back-breaking instrument, but the scuffle hoe or a wheel hoe is a very effective means of maintaining a loose surface soil.

A loose layer of soil one inch deep over the garden acts in the same way as a stone or piece of board allowed to lie on the ground. Perhaps you have noticed that it is damp under a stone or board lying flat on the ground. This is because the stone or board prevents the moisture from evaporating into the air. The loose layer of soil on top of the garden does the same thing.

"How Often Should I Till?"
The question is often asked: "How often should I till a garden?" The answer is: "As soon as the soil becomes baked and encrusted." Till it to restore the loose blanket of earth and thus prevent the loss of moisture. Some people till once a week but this is not necessary unless a rain has caked the soil and destroyed the soil mulch.

It is more important to till the ground as soon after a rain as it is fit than it is to till it regularly.

Sometimes, if a soil becomes very hard and dry, it is well to till before a rain in order that the soil will hold the rainfall better and that a large part of it will not run off.

If you have any doubt of the value of tillage to save moisture for the use of the plants, try an experiment. Till one part of the garden and neglect another part. You will find that the difference on this will be most marked in a dry season.

SEEK TO INTEREST LOCAL CAPITAL IN PROPOSED NEW HOTEL AND THEATER BUILDING ON SOUTH DETROIT STREET

Xenia will have a new, modern hotel in the near future if plans, announced Tuesday morning, by H. J. Young, of Dayton, who has been looking over the ground here and who is seeking to interest local capital, are consummated.

The proposed project, as outlined Tuesday, to a representative of this paper by Mr. Young, who with C. L. McKay, also of Dayton, are engaged in the hotel building business, calls for the erection of a five-story hotel and theater on the west side of South Detroit at the corner of Third Street. The properties involved in the plans are the Mrs. C. L. Darlington property at the corner of Detroit and Third, the Hanninger property and the Savage property. Mr. Young stated Tuesday that options have been taken on all three.

The proposed plan, as explained Tuesday, is the erection of an up-to-date hotel containing 108 sleeping rooms, 16 four-room apartments, cafe, fountain room and theater with a seating capacity of 1,000. To finance the plan $500,000, it was estimated by Mr. Young will be needed. Of this amount one half will be capital stock and the rest a bond issue, he said. Local capital, will be involved in the project if it goes through, and the hotel will be controlled by a Xenia company, and operated by the owners, Mr. Young said.

HIGH COURT DENIES PLEA FOR JUDGE

Columbus, June 20.—The State Supreme Court today announced that it has denied the application of counsel for former County Auditor C. L. Chute, New Lexington, for a writ of mandamus compelling Chief Justice Marshall to assign some judge in place of Common Pleas Judge Price, New Lexington, to conduct the trial relative to an indictment accusing Chute of embezzling county funds. The vote was 4 to 2 against the application, the chief justice not voting. Contending that the filing of an affidavit of prejudice served automatically to disqualify Judge Price, who is a Democratic candidate for nomination for state supreme judge, attorneys for Chute appealed to the entire bench of the state's highest tribunal when Chief Justice Marshall overruled an affidavit of prejudice against Judge Price. The chief justice held that it was discretionary with him as to whether Judge Price should be disqualified.

Under the ruling, Judge Price will conduct Chute's trial.

PAINFULLY BURNED AS PARAFFINE CATCHES FIRE

Mrs. Ernest Sanders of south of this city, is suffering from painful burns which she received in an accident at her home Saturday. Mrs. Sanders had put some paraffine on the stove to melt and then stepped out of the room for a few minutes. When she returned she found the paraffine blazing and seizing a long handled shovel she attempted to carry out the vessel containing the blazing liquid. When she reached the door the wind drove the flames back against her causing painful burns about her face and hands.

A doctor was called immediately and dressed the injuries.

MRS. MALLORY IS WINNER.

London, June 20.—In the first round of the Roehampton tennis singles today, Mrs. Molla B. Mallory eliminated Mrs. Clayton 6-4, 6-0.

The property involved in the transaction has a frontage on Detroit Street of 165 feet, and a depth of the alley to the north of 200 feet, and the alley to the south of 150 feet. The entrance to the proposed structure will be a block and a half from the center of town, and will be surrounded by five store rooms, which it is planned to rent.

On the ground floor will be the lobby, cafe, kitchen, rest rooms, and theater, the latter to be situated to the east of the proposed building according to plans drawn by Mr. Young. Entrance will be through a glazed roof arcade opening on Detroit Street.

Mr. Young said Tuesday that he had had talks with local men and provided a sufficient number can be interested financially, an organization will be formed and building will start immediately after preliminary arrangements have been made. No money has been subscribed as yet, he said.

Mr. Young estimated that it would take six months to build a hotel of this sort.

Mr. Young and Mr. McKay are interested in a new hotel building in Zanesville and also in one now under construction in Marion.

Andrew Hanninger said Tuesday that the option on his property was until September 1. What price has been placed on the properties involved is not announced.

LOCAL LEGION TO GIVE AN OPEN AIR FESTIVAL IN XENIA

A summer open air festival will be held by Joseph P. Foody Post, No. 95, American Legion, it was decided at a special meeting of the post held Monday evening.

The proposition was previously endorsed by the Post executive committee, and the sentiment of the general meeting corresponded with that decision. Commander Jacob Culp was authorized to appoint a festival committee to work out the arrangements for the affair.

It will be the duty of the committee to set the date, which may be the same week as the Greene County Fair, to locate a site and make detailed arrangements for the fair, which will be of the same nature as the fair held two years ago at the Rink, except that it will be staged out of doors.

Members of the Legion also unanimously endorsed a plan to offer the Xenia Troop of Boy Scouts, the use of the post rooms, Second and Detroit streets, one afternoon or evening each week, for the meeting purposes. It is thought the Scouts will accept the offer.

A movement to start an entirely American Legion Band was projected at the meeting and met with hearty response. Only Legion members will compose the band, which has already been given momentum with the plan in mind of getting the band together this summer.

Foody Post will hold a benefit show at the Bijou Theater soon for the purpose of raising funds to purchase two phonographs for the Greene County Infirmary, it was decided. With the funds to be raised in this way, one machine will be given to the women's department and one to the men. The date for the benefit has not been set.

To Make Rich Red Blood

Revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves and increase your strength and endurance take Organic Iron; not metallic iron which people usually take, but pure organic Iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. One dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Nuxated Iron is partially predigested and ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by blood, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron filings.

Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often commence to enrich your blood. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results.

Beware of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE ALWAYS RULED.

"The Committee of Forty Eight," has issued a statement interpreting recent political events, in which the claim is made that "the people are for the first time awakening to their responsibilities" and are "throwing off the chains of a political and industrial slavery."

Talk of this kind has been the chief stock in trade of socialists and revolutionaries in general for a long time. The assumption of a certain kind of "reformer" is that the people of this country have from the beginning of our government been a collection of imbeciles and weaklings herded about by bosses and machines, without the slightest capacity to assert themselves in primaries and elections.

This talk is, of course, just plain "bunk." There has never been a time in our history when the people of any portion of the country not controlled by the Southern Democratic party with all its schemes of fraud and disfranchisement, could not dominate primaries and elections. It has not taken the rise of latter day demagogues and political confidence men to show them the way to emancipation.

The American government has been within the control of the American people from the very earliest days of the republic. The administration now in power was put there by the votes of about two-thirds of all the people of this country. The lunatic fringers of politics were yelling during the last national campaign that the downtrodden people hadn't a look-in on their government, and the overwhelming decision of the American people in November, 1920, didn't teach them anything.

The people rule in this country. The intelligent among them have their suspicions of the mouthers of socialistic phrases who profess a special affection for the dear people in every campaign, and try to ride into power by assailing other men of more ability, character and patriotism who refuse to stoop to the depths of demagoguery to get office.

THE NEW STYLE DIPLOMACY.

Austria and other European countries have given over everything else in favor of hunting the pot of gold that lies at the end of the rainbow, but the search remains as yet unrewarded.

Time was when statecraft concerned itself largely with domestic matters and included in its technique intimate familiarity with the use of poisoned daggers and the prevailing modes of administering lethal beverages. The foreign relations of a country were then fairly simple. You raided your enemy's territory, and if he got around in time he took away from you what you had acquired, incidentally levying on your head as a war tax if he was able. If he did not get around in time, you took your plunder home with you and accounted the expedition a success. Later he invaded you, taking the same chances of success or failure in his turn.

From this stage statecraft emerged into the more sophisticated classic period, the period that gave rise to the definition of a diplomat as one sent abroad to lie for his country. Diplomacy in the old sense of the word, entered its era of decadence when President Wilson discovered the principle of "open covenants, openly arrived at." Under such a definition any one could be a diplomat who was persistent and could support a top-hat in the style to which it had been accustomed. So the game lost its savor for many of those bred in the classical school.

It is now evident that, like all phases of human activity, the history of diplomacy moves in cycles. Having gone through successive stages, we seem to have returned to the beginnings. Once more the criterion of successful foreign relations is the amount of plunder you can annex from your neighbor. Of course, the thing is done more politely nowadays. The old marauding expeditions have disappeared and the poisoned dagger is no longer the weapon of statecraft. But the same old principle is there; either bring home the bacon or be accounted a failure. To express it in a thoroughly modern, not to say contemporaneous fashion, they have put the dip back into diplomacy. Which makes it interesting.—Public Ledger.

BE A PARTISAN AND NOT A WABBLER.

Lord Leverhulme, the millionaire soap proprietor of London, had a good deal to say regarding the newspaper press when presiding over the 59th anniversary of the Newspaper Press Fund, which, under his organization this year has raised the record total of $14,000 for the relief of necessitous journalists. He said newspapers and editors were frankly partisan. He was a partisan, and he hoped they all were. He did not think very much of people who were not. If they believed in something, let them write for it, speak for it, work for it, and, if necessary, fight for it. It was in no way contrary to the best interests of the country that newspapers and their readers should be rankly and sincerely partisan. He thought nothing of the man who believed in a policy that was neither one thing nor the other. It sometimes appeared to him that the country was divided into three classes—(1) the man who is a partisan, (2) the man who opposed everything and called himself independent, and (3) the wabblor who changed his party on the slightest pretext. On those lines the country had been built up and in building up the country the press had had a far greater influence than most people recognized.

THE EXPECTED UNION OF NORTH AND SOUTH CHINA.

Dr. Alfred Sze, Chinese Minister to this country, looks with optimism upon the unification of the Chinese Republic. In an interview in New York, Dr. Sze said that at no time in many years had the future of China seemed so bright. Asked if the situation in China was clearing, Dr. Sze said he would not have left Washington unless he had felt assured that a settlement had been made. Because of the political situation in his country the Minister said he had been kept extremely busy, but that now for the first time since his appointment in February, 1921, he was able to take a vacation. "I believe," the Chinese Minister said, "that Sun Yat-sen will give up the government of Southern China to unite all China under one government. Because a union of North and South China was lacking, there has been considerable discontent and strife. Every Chinese is anxious that the two republics be one, because they realize that greater prosperity and progress will result. Every newspaper, furthermore, is acclaiming the unification. The Ministry has not received any official information that the union has actually taken place, but I believe this has been decided upon and only details of the settlement are still lacking. Official communications usually arrive twenty-four to thirty-six hours later than newspaper reports."

THE SPECIAL FIFTEEN

Too many of us merely live days. As though to live were but to pass with the hours.

For my part, I find the greatest inspiration in the accomplishment of definite things. I like to map out a particular job and go to it and stay in it, until I am able to say that one more definite task is finished.

On the other hand, I find too many times that I have gone through a day without these milestones to mark my way.

I sat in my library the other day with books piled everywhere—every one bristling with unrevealed treasure for me. I looked into several and noted the dates written on the front leaves telling when I had purchased them. I sat for quite a time reading from one that had long ago attracted my attention. Then I let this book drop to my lap and speculated as to the time necessary to finish it. I figured that if I spent fifteen minutes each day on a book I would finish dozens more than I do each year.

And then the idea came that it would be an excellent plan to reserve at least fifteen minutes each day for the accomplishment of some one thing.

Fifteen minutes for the purpose of practicing at writing to improve one's expression—fifteen minutes in which some flowers might be sent to some loved one—fifteen minutes out for a walk where quiet meditation might help to reveal one's own self to one's self—fifteen minutes dedicated to the spiritual side of one's nature.

It will surprise you to learn what a daily fifteen minute period is able to do for you. Perhaps you are living a life that is only partially awake—and maybe this fifteen minute plan will wake you completely.

Fifteen minutes may not seem a very long or important period but it can be. The tide against Napoleon at Waterloo turned in less time. And

Mothers—Read This Letter and Statement Which Follows

Portland, Indiana.—"I was troubled with irregularity and constipation and would often have to lie down because of pains. One Sunday my aunt was visiting us and she said her girls took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got well, so mother said she guessed she would let me try it. It is doing me good and I praise it highly. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial." — STELLA NEWTON, R. R. 8, Portland, Indiana.

Mothers—You should carefully guard your daughter's health. Advise her of the danger which comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, or overworking. Do not let her overstudy.

If she complains of headache, pains in back or lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, give her careful attention.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for your daughter to take, as it is especially adapted to relieve just such symptoms. Remember it contains nothing that can injure and can be taken in safety.

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

GENEROUS MEN.

Few of us are sordid misers when good counsel should be sprung, and as welter-weight advisers we all wield a fluent tongue. When a man comes up and hits me for a loan of fifty cents, oftentimes my conscience twits me, for I'm prone, like other gents, to indulge in long discourses on the folly of his way, till my larynx sore and hoarse is, and my hair is turning gray. And I mark the victim listen to my words of golden worth, and I see his teardrops glisten as they trickle to the earth. Always I feel ashamed and bitter when I've rounded out my spiel, and dismissed the wayworn critter with a guilder or a wheel. If another seedy caller at my wigwam door appears, I will give him half a dollar and not lecture him to tears. For I know that words are useless when a hungry man comes by; they are stale and flat and juiceless, and won't take the place of pie. But the love of declamation gets me when the bo arrives, and I hand him an oration 'stead of honey from the hives. And my ardor's not diminished by the thought that I'm a bore; and the bo, when I have finished, will receive two bits or more.

MORGAN APPOINTED SANITARY DIRECTOR OF NEW DISTRICT

Arthur E. Morgan, president of Antioch College, has been appointed director of the new Antioch Sanitary District with headquarters at Yellow Springs, in Common Pleas Court.

The appointment is for five years without compensation. With the appointment of the director the sanitary district petitioned for by Antioch college authorities April 16, 1922, has been created by the court.

The purpose of the district is to: (1) prevent, and correct pollution of streams; (2) clean and improve stream channels for sanitary purposes; (3) regulate the flow of streams for sanitary purposes; (4) provide for collection and disposal of sewage and other liquid wastes produced in the district; (5) provide a water supply for domestic, municipal and public use within the district, to construct reservoirs, trunk sewers, intercepting sewers, syphons, pumping stations, wells, intakes, pipe lines, purification works, treatment and disposal works and to maintain, operate and repair these services.

DEFENDANTS FAVORED

A jury in Common Pleas Court has found in favor of the defendants in the case of Omer J. Barnett against Frank Simison, and others, probably writing the last chapter in litigation that has existed between the families.

The plaintiff, a grandson of the late Mary Simison, sued to collect rental on his grandmother's household goods, which he alleged he kept for some time, from the estate, which passed to the defendants. In previous litigation, the plaintiff's mother sought to break her mother's will, in a suit against the same defendants, without avail.

The case was heard by the petit jury and eleven jurors concurred in the vote in favor of the defendants. The jurors were J. W. Miller, Edwin Buck, Robert Berryhill, C. D. Miller, W. A. Bryan, Walter Ferguson, Ford Kershner, J. E. Munger, Harry Luehrance, W. C. Hilt, Forest Hurley and Raymond Wolf.

Partition of Estate Allowed

In the case of Charles T. Bard against Jennie Bell Annin, partition of the estate has been allowed in Common Pleas Court as prayed for. Charles T. Bard and the defendants James H. Holbrook and George P. Bard, will each receive one-sixth of the estate and Jennie Bell Annin and Grace Belle Topping, each one-fourth. Charles Thomas, Paul Peterson and William Shambaugh have been appointed receivers.

SUES TO COLLECT NOTE.

The Miami Deposit Bank of Yellow Springs has brought suit in common Pleas Court against L. W. Hieronimus, Forest Hieronimus and A. B. Little, asking judgment on a promissory note originally issued for $500, bearing 8 per cent interest, on which a $300 credit has been applied. Miller & Finney represent the plaintiff.

PERMISSION TO SELL GIVEN

Albert C. Sherman as guardian of Rodah M. Rhodes, has been given permission to sell certain property, in Probate Court, and William Lavin, E. E. Boxwell and C. E. Satterfield have been appointed appraisers by the court.

TWO GUARDIANS APPOINTED

T. W. Trehan, has been appointed guardian of John Koogler, an incompetent, in probate court. S. S. Fields has been named guardian of Jane Fields an incompetent.

Mary Edith Mercer

Mary Edith Mercer, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mercer, was born March 15, 1885, on the Mercer homestead 1 1/2 miles north of Jamestown, Ohio and passed to the great beyond, June 14th, 1922.

She was united in marriage to Mr. George H. Ensinger, June 1st, 1910 going with her husband to Geauga Co., Ohio, where they bought a farm near the village at Parkman. After five years they sold their farm and came to live at the old home amidst the scenes of her childhood and the friends and associations she loved so well.

Two children were born to this union, Roger Albert, aged 11 and Ruth Amelia, aged four.

"Mary," as we were wont to call her, needs no eulogy from our pen, her life of willing service for others, her pure love expressed in countless acts of patient thoughtfulness for the happiness and welfare of those about her, are known to all with whom she mingled in whose memory she will ever live as an example of perfect womanhood.

Early in life Mary became interested in spiritual things, seeming to have a natural tendency toward all that was noble, good and pure. She became a member of the Methodist Protestant Church, known as White-Oak when but a girl, where her father, grandfather and great grandfather had worshiped in years ago. In later years this country church was discontinued and she came with her parents to the M. E. Church of Jamestown where she remained a cheerful worker for the remainder of her short stay in this mortal existence. She was a valued member of the Order of the Eastern Star and of the Rural Improvement Club.

Though seeming to be cut off in the very prime of life, she has lived so well, that her character will ever be a constant inspiration to her children, and all who were privileged to come under its sterling influence.

"There is no death! This mortal breath, Is but the suburb of a life Elysian, Whose portals we call death."

HAS SCORE OF 89 GROSS

Cleveland, June 20.—Miss Martha Kinsey, of Cincinnati, playing in the preliminary round of the Ohio Women's golf tournament here, turned in the low score of 89 gross, which with her handicap of 7, gave her the round in 82. A spectacular feature of Miss Kinsey's excellent work was the fact that she got birdies on the 13th, 14th and 15th holes.

Styles BY LENORE

Ways of trimming the Summer frock and giving it character and individuality, are often more important than the cut of the model. Many women like little or no trimming, others enjoy touches of color, laces, or embroidery. One of the most attractive, and at the same time most simple means of embellishing a tub frock is the use of plain cross stitch, especially on gingham.

Another decorative treatment for cotton frocks is the use of white gayly colored tapes and strings for binding of edges, and for embroidery.

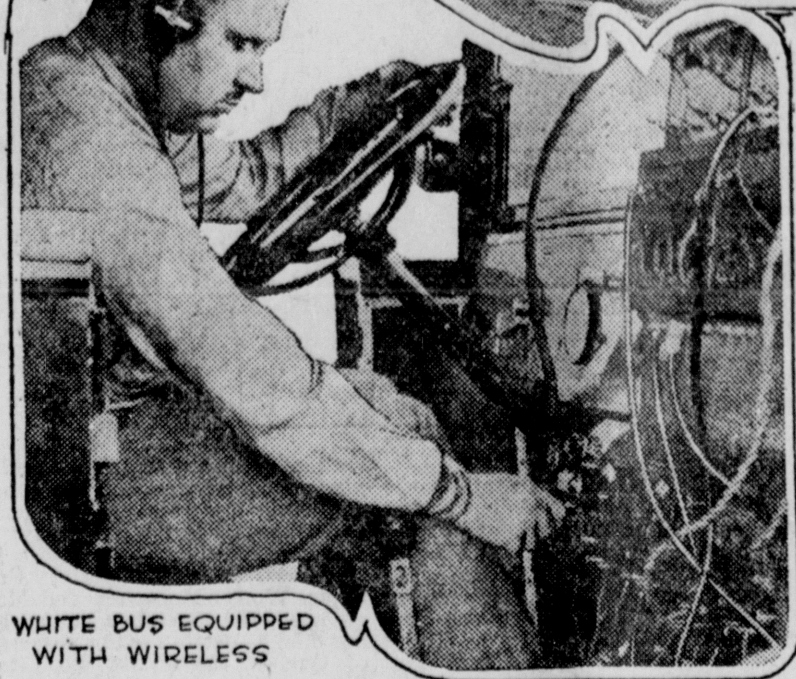

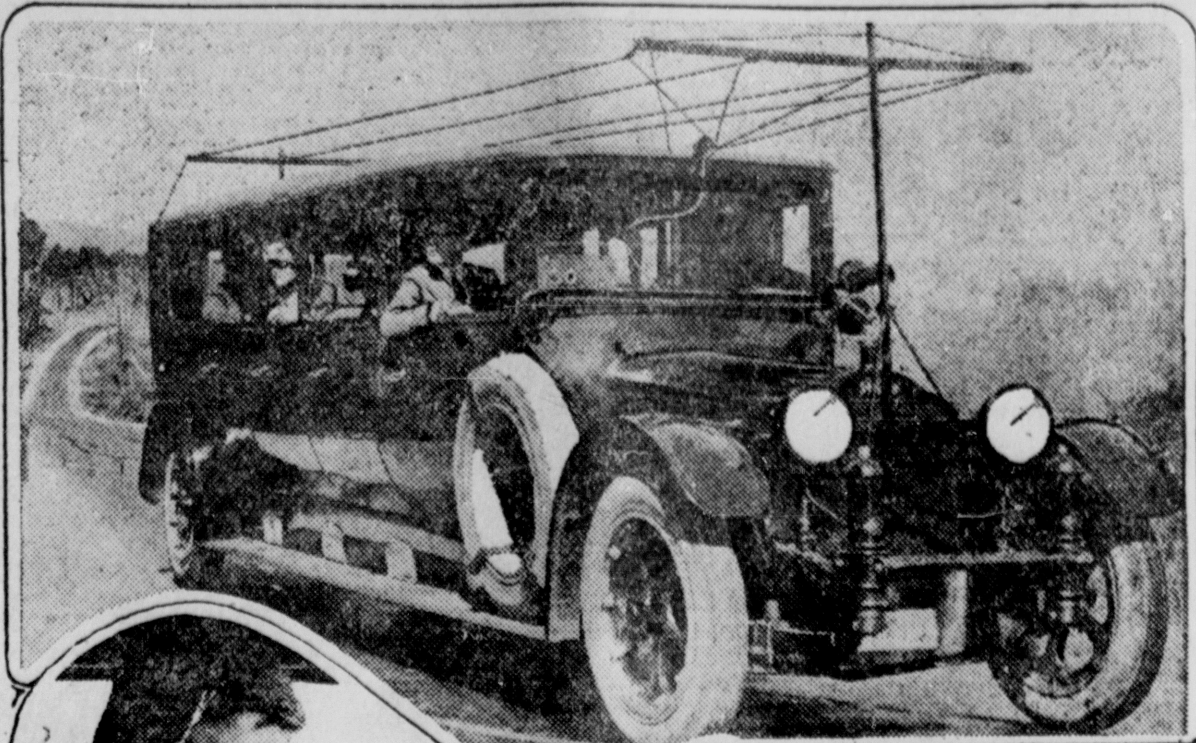

Many of the French frocks use this means of ornamentation.

This trimming is effectively carried out in a Dutch blue linen dress, a sketch of which is shown above. The string and thread embroidery is executed in a darker shade of blue, with touches of white. Note the simple motif of the design, also the novel cut of the collar.

TO STOP COUGHING AT NIGHT

A summer bronchial cough keeps not only the sufferer but other members of the family awake. Alfred Barker, 1061 Avondale St., E. Liverpool, O., writes: "I consider it my duty to write and tell the result of Foley's Honey and Tar, which I used for my boy who had been suffering from a bronchial cough for 7 or 8 weeks. Foley's Honey and Tar has done him wonderful good and I shall always recommend it." It soothes and heals. Sayre & Hemphill, 8 S. Detroit St. adv

RADIO MUSIC FOR BUS PASSENGERS

WHITE BUS EQUIPPED WITH WIRELESS

Bus lines in California will soon be serving you music with your rides. Should tests which the California

Transit Company, of Oakland, Cal., started this week prove successful many of the eighty-five White busses operated by this line will be equipped with radio phones to pick up daily radio concerts in the bay region.

W. E. Travis, president of the California Transit Company, sent the first radio equipped bus out on its regular run to Sacramento and in spite of the obstacles which confronted the test enough information was obtained to warrant further experiments and to assure Mr. Travis that radio concerts would soon be a reality for his patrons.

With only a two step radio short wave receiving outfit and handicapped by the necessity of operating with a low antenna, the bus was able to pick up San Francisco and Oakland concerts as far as Martinez.

At Sacramento a test was made by special arrangement with the Holbrecht broadcasting station. It was found that by a sacrifice of speed the concert was as audible when the bus was in motion as when it was standing at the curb.

According to officials of the bus company and radio men interested in the tests from a scientific angle, some refinements will be made, and experiments continued until desired results at varying speeds are obtained.

HELD ON CHARGE OF STEALING WHEEL

George Thompson, 19, no home was arrested Monday night by Lieutenant of Police Mangan and Patrolman Charles Simms, on a charge of stealing a bicycle.

The arrest was made after Thompson is alleged to have sold the wheel in this city for $1 when police were convinced that it was worth more than that. Thompson admitted he stole the bicycle at a point six miles from Dayton, between that city and Springfield.

Montgomery County authorities have been notified of Thompson's arrest and he is being held pending an investigation of the reported theft. Thompson says he was born in Missouri, and has no relatives.

ELKS PROMISE TOP CALIBRE MINSTRELS

Wilmington, June 20.—The long cherished ambition of a coterie of Wilmington Elks meets with fulfillment when that organization presents a minstrel show on Monday and Tuesday evenings, June 26 and 27 at the Murphy Theater.

The project has been deferred awaiting a time when conditions would be such as to permit of a production worthy of the Elks Lodge. Constant endeavor linked with a series of fortunate circumstances will culminate in a show which will establish a new record not only in the annals of amateur minstrelsy but throughout all Elksdom.

Prominently featured are those exponents of jazz, the McKays, of which the city is proud and justly so for no minstrel company and in fact only two or three of the largest New York musical revues can boast of their equals.

Gorgeous costuming and scenic investiture are assured by the fact that no sooner had the war gone out than the Wilmington Elks would give a minstrel than a telegram was received from Edward Conard, son-in-law of the late Al G. Fields, of Fields Minstrels proffering the use of any or all of the scenery, costumes and effects of that show.

SHOOTS HIS SON AND KILLS SELF

Covington, Ky., June 20.—C. B. Brooks, 65, a farmer living in Kenton County, Ky., eight miles from Covington, shot and killed his son, J. Leslie Brooks, 33, this morning. He then went into a workshop and substituting a shot gun for the revolver he had used, ended his own life. Just before the double killing the wives of the two principals tried to stop the enraged father when he left the house with a revolver in each pocket. He turned furiously on them and fired several shots which failed to take effect, then continued to the garage and killed his son. The tragedy is said to be the result of many bitter quarrels between the father and son which had their climax in a heated altercation Sunday.

Beauty Chats

ANSWERED LETTERS

Constant Reader—Cocoa butter is fattening and must have done something for you, if you massaged with it even for so short a time as six weeks. You need more than this as you are very thin and your weight much below average. Take a spring tonic so your appetite will improve and eat such foods as will build you up and also tatten you.

Evelyn—You have burned the life out of your hair with heated irons so it cannot grow. You can make your hair curl with the kid curlers if you dampen it first and let it remain on the curler until it has dried. Bobbed hair still prevails and is not likely to go out of style.

Constant Reader—There is no reason why you should make yourself less attractive to avoid the stares of rude men on the streets. Your trouble comes from noticing them, until you have become self-conscious; all you need do is to keep your mind busy with your own affairs and not notice their rudeness.

J. E. L.—Either a massage or a treatment from the vibrator will help this condition as in either case the circulation is quickened. Sometimes when the hair falls out the system needs a tonic, but you will help it also by treating it locally. The "Pilocarpine Tonic" is put up by any chemist. If you do not have the formula for it I shall be glad to mail it to you.

Maxine—Any cream will act as a base for a face powder. Thick hair is the result of a healthy condition of the scalp and also that of the whole system.

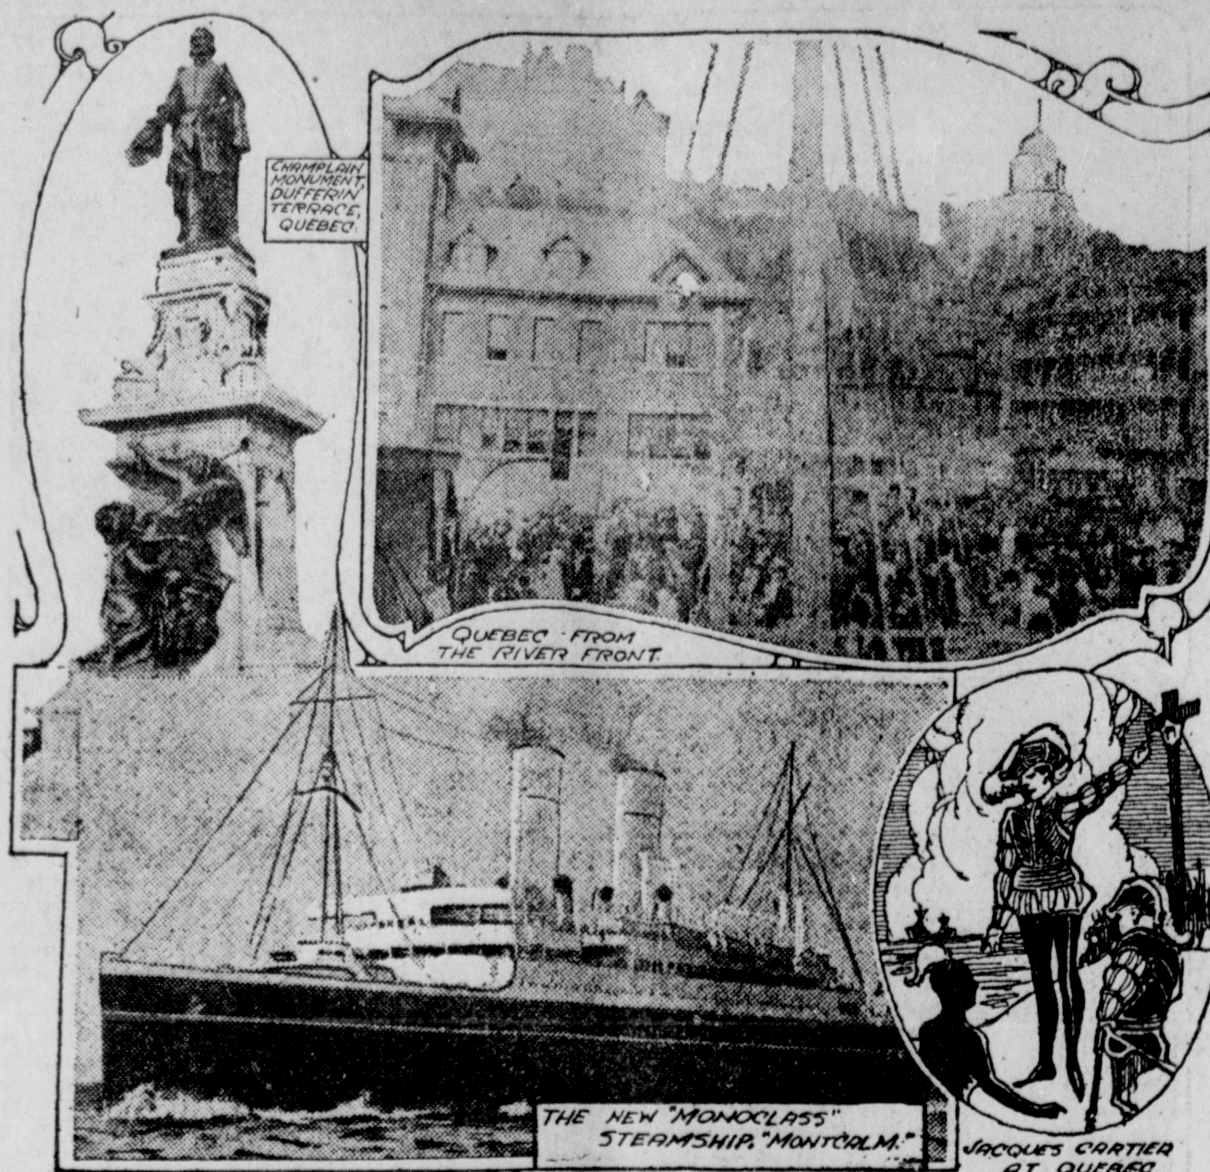

Sally O.—At 18 to have attained the height of 5 ft. 7 1/2 in. would seem to indicate that you should now grow any taller and you should now begin to develop. Your weight at 128 is normal.

Molly O.—You are unique in wanting to bleach your lashes and brows, as such a procedure would so alter your expression that you would not look natural. Whenever the lashes and brows are lighter than the hair, there is a lack of balance in the coloring and as soon as this is corrected there is a great improvement.

Nancy—Unless you know exactly how to massage your face, you will make more lines than you eradicate. There is very little of this work done any more as occasional astringent treatments, and the daily good care of cleansing and nourishing give better results than the old method of vigorous massage.

Tomorrow—Elbow cream.

ST. LAWRENCE RIVER GREAT ARTERY OF ATLANTIC TRAFFIC

The picturesque and historic St. Lawrence River, discovered and explored by Jacques Cartier 389 years ago, was North America's first water-gate to and from the Atlantic Ocean, and today Montreal although 500 miles from the sea, is the second greatest port on the continent. Practically 100 sailings are scheduled this year by Canadian Pacific ships, 74 from Montreal alone, while Quebec, the home port of the 25,000 ton "Empress of Scotland" and three other "Empresses," will have 23 sailings. Canada got its name from Kanata, an Indian word meaning a collection of huts, and in Cartier's time Quebec was Stadacona and Montreal was Hochelaga, both Indian villages. Today Montreal has nearly 1,000,000 population. As the St. Lawrence route is the shortest one between America and Europe, permitting two days of the voyage to be made on the smooth water of the great river, its popularity has compelled this year an increase of five big ships in the Canadian Pacific fleet alone. Three of these new vessels, the Montcalm, Montclare and Montrose, 16,400 tons, are new "monoclass," or single cabin ships, sailing from Montreal while the new "Empress of Scotland" and "Empress of India" make Quebec their port of departure and arrival. Two of the "Empresses" maintain a fortnightly service between Quebec and Hamburg via Southampton and Cherbourg, and two run between Quebec and Liverpool.

ica's most beautiful rivers and its picturesque shores are the domain of history and romance. Steaming down the majestic waterway, the traveller recalls great names in history—Cartier, Champlain, Frontenac, Wolfe, Montcalm and Montigny—the three last named having died in battle for the possession of Quebec, the quaint old Citadel City enthroned on its heights 200 feet above the river. Quebec is a bit of New France still holding its own on the lofty battlements where French and English fought so bitterly for supremacy. Today they live peaceably side by side and their heroes are equally honored. Montreal, too, has its interesting French sections, wonderful churches and beautiful streets, parks and buildings well befitting Canada's greatest city.

Indomitable Durant

It is said in automotive circles that W. C. Durant accomplishes what he plans; to him difficulties are so many spurs to greater effort, making one get on the faster.

He is the man who made the Buick. He conceived and organized General Motors, including Cadillac, Chevrolet, Oakland and Oldsmobile. Certainly a considerable monument to one man's tireless energy.

But now, when many men would be content to enjoy a well-earned vacation, he is up to the armpits in the business of launching the crowning effort of his career.

It's "just a real good car," Durant says. "If it's good enough for him to christen with his own name, it's good enough for us," said the trade, and in 141 working days after the announcement they contracted for $31,000,000 worth of Durant cars.

Efficient Housekeeping

By Laura A. Kirkman

Mrs. G. N.: "Please publish recipes for Dill Pickles, Mustard Pickle, Chile Sauce and Plain Cucumber Pickles." Answer: If you will send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, I will send you my two-page multi-graphed set of pickle recipes entitled "Eight Popular Pickles." This set of recipes includes the four pickles you mention, as well as Mixed Pickles, Dixie Relish, Corn Relish and Pepper relish. Any reader who sends a stamped and self-addressed envelope may have it.

Mrs. J. B. S.: "I wonder how many housekeepers have tried Rhubarb Short Cake? My husband says it is as good as the best, and much cheaper. Prepare the crust as for biscuits, roll in two squares, and bake a light brown. Stew the rhubarb in a little water and plenty of sugar a long time. Spread this thickly between the layers and on top of the crust, sprinkle with sugar, and serve with cream or rich milk. It's fine."

Answer: Thank you, Reader Friend. I also want to thank you for the hints and other recipes you enclosed in your letter, which I will publish soon. I would like the other cake recipe you mention.

Subscriber: "Please publish recipes for Cream Pie and Washington Pie."

Answer: Cream "Pie." Cream one-third cup of butter, add one cup of granulated sugar, the yolks of two eggs well beaten, one-half cup of sweet milk, and one and three-fourths cups of flour sifted with two and one-half teaspoons of salt. Fold in the two egg-whites stiffly beaten and bake in two round layer-cake pans for 30 minutes in a hot oven. Put together with the following filling between the layers and sprinkle the top with powdered sugar.

Cream Filling: Stir together two good, wholesome physic. Sayre & tablespoons of sugar, 1-3 cup of flour, Hemphill, 8 S. Detroit St. adv and a pinch of salt; add two slightly beaten eggs, two cups of scalded milk, and cook 15 minutes in the top of a double boiler, stirring constantly. Cool and flavor with one teaspoon of vanilla.

Washington Pie: Mix and bake the same as Cream Pie, but put raspberry jelly or jam between the layers instead of the Cream Filling. Sprinkle top with powdered sugar.

A Friend: "I have no regular steamer, how can I steam clams at home?"

Answer: Buy the clams in the shell, alive. Wash them, scrubbing with a brush and changing the water several times. Put them in a pall which has a tight-fitting cover, adding one-half cup of hot water to four quarts of clams. Now put on the pall cover, tying it on by winding string around the can from top to bottom, and sink this pall in a large pot in which is enough rapidly-boiling water to rise almost to the top of the pall. The clams must be steamed till their shells partly open (after an hour, remove cover from pall and look at the clams, putting covered pall back into the boiling water, if the shells are not opened). Serve with melted butter in individual dishes. Many people like a few drops of lemon juice or vinegar added to the butter.

Not habit forming—just a good, wholesome physic. Sayre & tablespoons of sugar, 1-3 cup of flour, Hemphill, 8 S. Detroit St. adv

FOUR DANCING FEET

BY JANE PHLEPS

GERTIE'S NEW HOME CHAPTER 75

It would be impossible to describe Gertie's delight in the ranch, her home. To her it was an enchanted castle. Her pleasure in it, her eager delight in everything he did, made Tom very happy. For occasionally he had wondered if this city girl, the product of the crowded East Side, would ever be happy in so isolated a place as his beloved ranch. But now he had no doubts. Together they explored the entire acreage, Gertie riding the pony Tom had broken, and which was very gentle. Learning to ride had seemed very wonderful to her, she had very occasionally seen young ladies on the bridge path in the park but it never had occurred to her that she ever would ride horseback.

She was learning to shoot, and to play tennis. Tom had very fine courts not far from the ranch house and they practiced daily. He had been one of the crack players when in college, and had kept in practice.

Then there was the house. She had to get acquainted with every part of it. At first Mrs. Black, the housekeeper, had been a little inclined to resent Gertie, perhaps fearful of losing her position, but when she saw how anxious Gertie was to have everything remain as it had been, she could not do enough to show her appreciation of her employer's bride.

Gertie's own rooms had been done over in rose and gray and although Tom had given her a hint of what Tom was doing for her she never had expected anything so exquisite as her own little sitting-room, far from opened from their bedroom. There was nothing particularly expensive in the room, Tom's taste would not allow him to spoil a ranch house with inappropriate furnishings but soft cretonnes, rattan chairs with big cushions, a writing desk and other pieces of light woods, and books were everywhere.

"It will be my own fault if I don't learn things," Gertie said to herself as she saw the books, "and I will! If I don't understand Tom will help me." She was more than ever anxious to learn to be a companion for the educated man she had married; to have him proud of her.

The Chink and she had been friends from the start. And when after a bit, Tom's duties again claimed much of his time, he told the China boy that he should hold him responsible for his mistress, that he must go with her take care of her just as he had Tim.

Gertie's letters home told of her life on the ranch in such detail that Mrs. Cummings said:

"I feel like I had been there. I think I could find my way around in the dark."

"I'll bet you couldn't!" Tim replied disdainfully, "why there's more crooked places in the stairs and halls than you ever saw, taint like city houses, one room right on top of another, and stairs going straight up like a pointer's ladder."

Tom had been as good as his word. He had left a check for Mrs. Cummings, a note with it. He said:

"With love from your son, Tom."

He knew her pride, and was sure the only way to get her to accept anything from him was to put it in such a way she couldn't very well refuse it. That he had understood her was proved by her little note of thanks enclosed in a letter she had written Gertie:

"I ain't much good at writing, Tom, but I thank you for the check. I am very proud to have you for my son, Mother."

The last word had been erased, then rewritten.

"Ma thought perhaps you'd think her too forward, then must have changed her mind and known you wouldn't think so," Gertie told Tom as they read her mother's note.

"I have a great deal of respect, as well as fondness for your mother, dear. If there were more mothers like her, there would be more girls like you, girls, that make real wives."

"Do I satisfy you, Tom? Sometimes I am afraid—me—just a dancing girl and now—all this—you"

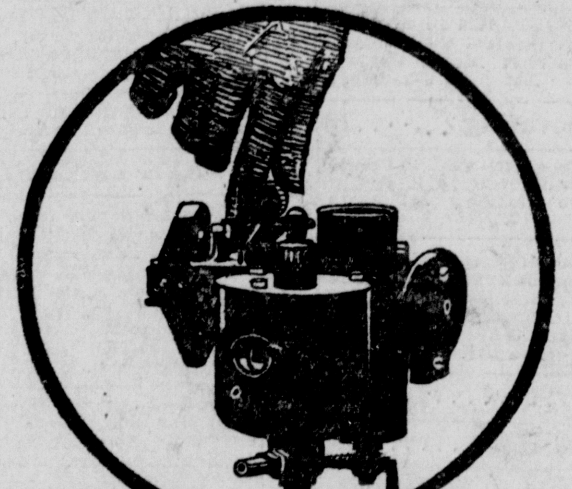

As always when she talked in this strain which was not often, because of her remembrance of that talk with her mother which she promised not to, he took her in his arms and with loving words and kisses told her how dear she was to the one girl in all the world.
